

Appendix II: Examples

Active transportation - walking, biking, and public transportation

- Bike racks and storage solutions
 - Promote and encourage biking by making it easier and more accessible.
- Sidewalk and bike path improvements
 - Promote walking by making it easier and more accessible.
- Signage, wayfinding signage
 - Use signage to make navigation on foot and bike easier and more enjoyable.
- Street furnishing
 - Permanent benches, planter boxes, trash cans, recycling bins.
 - Parklets: sidewalk extensions that provide more space and amenities for people using the street. This can include dining, garden, or recreational use.
- Crosswalks
 - Improving safety and appearance.
- Public transportation shelters
 - Improving access, safety, shade, and appearance.

Safe and inclusive places - visibility and accessibility

- Lighting
 - Improving safety in recreational areas or along walking/biking routes
- High visibility enhancements
 - LED light, reflectors, reflector strips
- ADA accessibility improvements
 - Ramps, tactile warning surfaces
- Shading
 - Improve shade by constructing structures and/or trees

Arts, culture, and placemaking

- Enhancing public space
 - Art Installations
 - Murals
 - Sculptures
 - Street Art

Physical activity, recreation, and trails

- Playgrounds and/or playground equipment
 - Adaptive and inclusive improvements
- Trail/path construction, additions, and improvements
 - Storybook strolls, fitness stations
- Recreational courts
- Fitness equipment
- Park or recreational area refurbishment

Nutrition and food systems

- Hydration stations - indoor or outdoor
- Gardens
- Signage